Paso Doble

A Traditional Spanish Dance

Daniella Karagach is the current USA National 10-Dance Champion, and is the youngest US competitor to ever hold this title. Daniella and her partner, Pasha Pashkov were selected to represent the USA at the 2009 World Games in Taiwan, and are representing the USA at the World Championship in Austria in November 2010, as well as the World Cup in Korea. Daniella has been dancing since the age of three and has garnered many titles in the competitive world of ballroom. She is a wonderful teacher and we are very excited to have her teach our World Class Workshop.

Flamenco

Claudia Campbell-Matland, a Rutgers Alumnus, will be performing a Guajiro dance at our upcoming "Plaza De Oro" dance fundraiser. We are extremely grateful for the participation of the Alborada Dance Company at our event. Claudia joined Alborada in 2003, bringing experience in all forms of Spanish Dance: Classical, Escuela Bolera (18th century court dances), Folkloric and Flamenco; she performed for many years in community dance groups in Central New Jersey and New York City. Claudia was a faculty member at American Repertory Ballet's Princeton Ballet School, teaching Spanish Dance from 1999 - 2005. She currently assists Alborada Executive Director Eva Lucena with teaching all levels of student classes in central NJ.

Flamenco

Ryan Rockmore joined the flamenco scene a little over a year ago, but previously was a Standard dancer on the NYU Ballroom/Latin Dance Team. He discovered his passion for flamenco after studying abroad in Madrid in spring 2009 and, over the past year Ryan has mainly studied under Victoria Koyhan and has performed his choreography at Stepping Out Studios. Other teachers include La Magdalena, Leslie Koyhal, and Juana Cala. Also, this past summer he spent five weeks studying at the Centro de Arte y Flamenco in Sevilla with Miguel Vargas. His most recent accomplishments include winning the major New York University Greek Life competition with a flamenco Tangos as his talent and joining the New York company of Flamenco Vivo Carlota Santana.
